MINISTRY OF THE FIRST CHURCH.

THE settlement of Dover commenced in the spring of 1623, when Edward Hilton landed upon Dover Neck and built upon the extremity of Hilton's point. There was no ministry, because of the fewness of the inhabitants, until 1633, when an accession was made to the settlement by a company of about thirty persons from the west of England, who landed at Salem, Mass., October 10 (O. S.), 1633, and immediately came to Dover.

In this company was REV. WILLIAM LEVERICH, a graduate of Emmanuel College, Cambridge, Eng., in 1625, "an able and worthy Puritan minister." He intended to remain here, but after a trial of nearly two years, his support proved inadequate and he left the town. He went to Boston, was admitted a member of the First Church there, May 9, 1635, was settled at Sandwich from 1638 or 39 to 1652, was employed as a missionary in 1653, and probably till 1657; in 1658 removed to Huntington, L. I., whence he went in 1670 to Newtown, where he died, June 19, 1677, aged 77.

During his ministry the first meeting-house was erected on a spot south of the remnants of the fortification.

GEORGE BURDETT was second minister. He was graduated from Cambridge, Eng., and had left Yarmouth, Eng., in 1634, came to America, and was admitted to the church in Salem, Mass., where he preached a year or more. In 1637, he came to Dover, where he became preacher, and soon after Governor, by a voluntary "combination" of the settlers. A man of plausible address and good scholarship, he was generally popular until his correspondence with Archbishop Laud, and some instances of immoral conduct were discovered, when he hastily removed to Agamenticus, Me., in 1638. A similar course there ended in his returning to England, where, entering the Royalist army in the civil war, he was taken prisoner by the Parliament troops and committed to prison. Nothing further is known of him.

HANSERD KNOLLYS, third minister, born in Calkwell, Lincolnshire, Eng., in 1598, a graduate of Emmanuel College, Cambridge, Eng., ordained by the Bishop of Peterboro', June 30, 1629, held the living of Humberstone, Lincolnshire, but resigned it from conscientious scruples, arrived at Boston, Mass., July, 1638, and at Dover in August. He was forbidden to preach by Mr. Burdett, but after that person's departure he exercised ministerial functions. Under his care the FIRST CHURCH was organized in December, 1638, it being the oldest, but one, of the churches in New Hampshire. When Mr. Larkham came, in 1640 (who became associated in the pastorate with Mr. Knollys), difficulties arose between them, and the people became divided. Mr. Knollys left in 1641, and reached England, December 24, 1641. He was there a man of eminent piety and zeal, and a decided Baptist. He suffered greatly from persecution, and died, September 19, 1691. His reputation has been aspersed, but, as it now appears, evidently from prejudice. He published twelve works, the most interesting of which is his Autobiography. His wife, Anne, daughter of John —eney, Esq., died 30 April, 1671, in the 63d year of her age.

THOMAS LARKHAM, fourth minister, born at Lyme, Dorsetshire, Eng., May 4, 1601; was graduated at Cambridge and settled at Northam, near Barnstable, Eng. ; coming to Dover in 1640, he was received as minister, as associate with Mr. Knollys, and sole minister after Mr. Knollys' departure. He was pastor late in the year 1642, but then returned to England and settled in Tavistock, Devonshire, where he was, says Calamy, "a man of great piety and sincerity." Ejected by the uniformity act of 1662, he lived in great persecution from the established church, and died, in 1669, in the house of his son-in-law, where he was concealed for fear of imprisonment. He published three works, the chief of which was a quarto of 520 pages, on the "Attributes of God."

DANIEL MAUD, fifth minister, born about 1585 ; was graduated from Cambridge, England, in 1606, "a man of quiet and peaceful disposition," had been a minister in England, arrived at Boston in 1635, was admitted freeman, May 25, 1636, and officiated as school-master for some years. He came to Dover early in 1643, being recommended by the ministers in answer to the request of the people of Dover. He died in 1655, his Will being dated 17, 11 mo., 1654 (Feb. 17, 1655), and proved, June 26, 1655. The second meeting-house was built in 1653, in accordance with a town vote dated 5, 10 mo., 1652 ; a bell was placed upon it in 1665, and a fortification built round it in 1667, the remains of which are still visible and which mark its site. The church was presented with a deed of four acres of land, including this ancient site, on April 6, 1889.

JOHN REYNER, sixth minister, born in Gildersome, Eng., in 1600 ; was graduated from Cambridge in 1625, came to America in or near 1635, settled in Plymouth, Mass., in 1636, left that place in November, 1654, and settled in Dover in 1655. "He was a man of meek and humble spirit, sound in the truth, and every way irreproachable in his life and conversation." During the last few years of his life he was assisted by his son and successor, John Reyner, Jr. He died April 20, 1669, aged 69. His will was dated, April 19, and proved, June 30, his widow Frances being Executrix. He owned and bequeathed an estate in the Parish of Batly, Yorkshire, England.

In his time, extra services were held at Cochecho on the Sabbath in the winter for several years, William Wentworth, an elder of the church, being employed by the town to preach there.

JOHN REYNER, JR., seventh minister, son of John Reyner, his predecessor, was born, probably, in Plymouth, in 1643; was graduated at Harvard College in 1663, and became assistant to his father about 1667. Upon his father's death he was invited, July 22, 1669, to become pastor, and continued to officiate, but was not regularly settled until July 12, 1671. He died at Braintree, Mass., December 21, 1676, "of a cold and fever," says Hull, "that he took in the field among the soldiers." His wife was Judith, daughter of Edmund Quincy, of Braintree. Of him it is said, "he possessed a double portion of his father's spirit."

JOHN PIKE, eighth minister, was born in Salisbury, Mass., May 13, 1653; was graduated at Harvard College in 1675, came to Dover "for the work of the ministry," Nov. 1, 1678, and was settled, Aug. 31, 1681. He was absent some of the time during his settlement here on account of the Indian wars, but he died here in the pastorate, March 10, 1709-10. His wife, Sarah, daughter of Rev. Joshua Moody, died Jan. 24, 1702-3. His Will was dated, March 6, 1709-10. "He was esteemed as an extraordinary preacher, and a man of true godliness." His Journal, from 1678 to 1710, is extant, and has been printed.

NICHOLAS SEVER, ninth minister, was born in Roxbury, Mass., April 15, 1680; was graduated at Harvard College in 1701, and was ordained at Dover, April 11, 1711. He resigned his charge in the spring of 1715 on account of an almost total loss of voice. In 1716, he was appointed Tutor in Harvard College, where he remained for twelve years. Not long after, he was appointed Judge C. C. P. in Plymouth Co., Mass., a station for which he proved himself eminently qualified. He died April 7, 1764.

Prior to his settlement, the regular meetings of the Sabbath had been held at Dover Neck, but Mr. Sever preached partly at Cochecho. The third meeting-house was erected on Pine Hill, before 2 May 1711, when "four acres were laid out to the Reaurent Mr. Nicholas Sever between Mr. Paul Gerrish his house and the new meeting-house, beginning at the corner of the highway that leads from Cochecha Road to Campin's Rocks," but the old one at the Neck stood until about 1720.

JONATHAN CUSHING, tenth minister, was born in Hingham, Mass., December 20, 1690; was graduated at Harvard College in 1712, and was ordained pastor of this church, Sept. 18, 1717; during most of his ministry he preached at Cochecho; he died, March 25, 1769, having had a colleague for the two years previous. He "sustained the character of a grave and sound preacher, a kind, peaceable, prudent and judicious pastor, a wise and faithful friend." During his ministry one hundred and thirty-three were added to the church, of whom nine were by letter.

The fourth meeting-house was dedicated, Dec. 13, 1758, and stood upon the site of the present house; the former one was sold in pursuance of a vote passed, Nov. 26, 1759. The parish was incorporated distinct from the town, June 11, 1762.

JEREMY BELKNAP, D. D., eleventh minister, was born in Boston, Mass., June 4, 1744 (O. S.); was graduated at Harvard College in 1762; was ordained colleague with Mr. Cushing, Feb. 18, 1767, and became sole pastor in 1769. He married Ruth Eliot, June 15, 1767. His connection ceased, Sept. 11, 1786, and he was installed pastor of the Federal Street church in Boston (afterwards Dr. Channing's), April 4, 1787; he died of a paralytic attack, June 20, 1798. In his ministry here forty-three were added to the church, of whom five were by letter.

Dr. Belknap was distinguished for his literary attainments and beloved for his personal character. He was an ardent patriot in the Revolution, and by his writings and correspondence did eminent service. He published numerous works, the best known of which is his History of New Hampshire.

ROBERT GRAY, twelfth minister, was born in Andover, Mass., Oct. 9, 1761, was a revolutionary soldier; was graduated at Harvard College in 1786, and was ordained over this church, February 28, 1787. He married, March 27, 1787, Lydia Tufts, of Charlestown, Mass. His connection as pastor ceased, May 20, 1805. He preached afterwards in the western part of Barrington, though he was never again settled, and died in Wolfeborough, N. H., August 25, 1822. During his ministry, thirty-four were added to the church. He published a sermon at the ordination of Rev. Daniel Stone at Hallowell, Me., Oct. 21, 1795; a Thanksgiving sermon; and a N. H. Election sermon.

CALEB HAMILTON SHEARMAN, thirteenth minister, was born in Brimfield, Mass., in 1779; was graduated at Brown University in 1803; was ordained at Dover, May 6, 1807, and dismissed, May 7, 1812. He left Dover about 1814. A family record says he died and was buried in Virginia in 1815. Six persons are recorded as having united with the church during his ministry.

pastoral charge in 1831, and died in Cornish, April 13, 1835, "a good and pious man, a serious and faithful pastor." Mr. Clary was re-interred, Dec. 19, 1835, in Pine Hill (Dover) burying ground, by desire of this church. During his ministry, sixty-nine united with the church.

During his ministry and previous to the settlement of his successor, one hundred and ninety-six were added to this church, of whom thirty-six were by letter. During his pastorate the fifth house of worship was built, being dedicated 31 Dec., 1829. Mr. Winslow was installed pastor of the Bowdoin Street church in Boston, September 26, 1832, and dismissed in March, 1841. In 1854 he accepted the pastorate of the Presbyterian church, Geneva, N. Y., and stayed two years, adding nearly two hundred members to the church. His health failing, he resigned. While in this pulpit he published three sermons on the Trinity, and an historical discourse embracing a history of the First Parish, Dover, from 1633 to 1831. He was in active service many years, especially in charge of seminaries for the liberal education of young ladies. He published various works, mainly educational. ## POLITY.

IT is the duty of Christ's disciples to associate themselves together for worship and communion, for mutual watchfulness and improvement, for the administration of baptism and the Lord's Supper, and for the perpetuation and extension of His Kingdom among men; and any association of Christians for these purposes is a Christian church, complete in itself, with all necessary power for its own government. Such a church is in fellowship with all Christian churches, and should receive from them and extend to them the advice and assistance which the law of Christ requires. But it has a special relation to churches of like character, and, in all matters of common concern to the brotherhood of churches, should consult the common good.

Our fathers organized this among the most ancient of the churches of New England upon these principles, and found in them a security for their religious rights and liberties.

We, the children, seek to perpetuate this ancient faith and order. We, therefore, affirm our purpose in all matters of our own, and in those relating to churches of like organization, to be governed by these established principles of New Testament polity.

THE CREED.

ALTHOUGH the Congregationalists have no denominational creed they have on different occasions, to some extent denominationally, formulated their doctrinal beliefs. The real Confession of our denomination is the summation of the thousands of confessions of our churches. The last general statement of doctrine is known as the Creed of 1883. At the triennial meeting of the National Council of the Congregational churches of the United States in 1880, a committee of eleven was appointed to select a commission of twenty-five to be charged with the duty of preparing for our churches a "simple, clear and comprehensive exposition of the truths of the glorious gospel of the blessed God." The result was the New Creed. It was signed by twenty-two of the commissioners and sent out to the churches to receive such favor as it might seem to deserve.

While this church requires no doctrinal test of membership, other than that set forth in its confession and covenant, it accords substantially with the following statement of Doctrine.

THE CREED OF 1883.

I. We believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible ;

And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who is of one substance with the Father ; by whom all things were made ;

And in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life, who is sent from the Father and Son, and who together with the Father and Son is worshiped and glorified.

II. We believe that the Providence of God, by which he executes His eternal purposes in the government of the world, is in and over all events; yet so that freedom and responsibility of man are not impaired, and sin is the act of the creature alone.

III. We believe that man was made in the image of God, that he might know, love and obey God, and enjoy Him forever; that our first parents by disobedience fell under the righteous condemnation of God; and that all men are so alienated from God that there is no salvation from the guilt and power of sin except through God's redeeming grace.

IV. We believe that God would have all men return to Him; that to this end He has made Himself known, not only through the works of nature, the course of His providence, and the consciences of men, but also through supernatural revelations made especially to a chosen people, and above all, when the fullness of time was come, through Jesus Christ His Son.

V. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the record of God's revelation of Himself in the work of redemption; that they were written by men under the special guidance of the Holy Spirit; that they are able to make wise unto salvation; and that they constitute the authoritative standard by which religious teaching and human conduct are to be regulated and judged.

VI. We believe that the love of God to sinful men has found its highest expression in the redemptive work of His Son; who became man, uniting His divine nature with our human nature in one person; who was tempted like other men, yet without sin; who, by His humiliation, His holy obedience, His sufferings, His death on the cross, and His resurrection, became a perfect Redeemer; whose sacrifice of Himself for the sins of the world declares the righteousness of God, and is the sole and sufficient ground of forgiveness and of reconciliation with Him.

VII. We believe that Jesus Christ, after He had risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, where, as the one Mediator between God and man, He carries forward His work of saving men; that He sends the Holy Spirit to convict them of sin, and to lead them to repentance and faith; and that those who through renewing grace turn to righteousness, and trust in Jesus Christ as their Redeemer, receive for His sake the forgiveness of their sins, and are made the children of God.

VIII. We believe that those who are thus regenerated and justified, grow in sanctified character through fellowship with Christ, the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and obedience to the truth; that a holy life is the fruit and evidence of saving faith; and that the believer's hope of continuance in such a life is in the preserving grace of God.

IX. We believe that Jesus Christ came to establish among men the kingdom of God, the reign of truth and love, righteousness and peace; that to Jesus Christ, the Head of this kingdom, Christians are directly responsible in faith and conduct; and that to Him all have immediate access without mediatorial or priestly intervention.

X. We believe that the Church of Christ, invisible and spiritual, comprises all true believers, whose duty it is to associate themselves in churches, for the maintenance of worship, for the promotion of spiritual growth and fellowship, and for the conversion of men; that these churches, under the guidance of the Holy Scriptures and in fellowship with one another, may determine—each for itself—their organization, statements of belief, and forms of worship, may appoint and set apart their own ministers, and should co-operate in the work which Christ has committed to them for the furtherance of the gospel throughout the world.

XI. We believe in the observance of the Lord's day, as a day of holy rest and worship ; in the ministry of the Word ; and in the two sacraments, which Christ has appointed for His church : Baptism, to be administered to believers and their children, as the sign of cleansing from sin, of union to Christ, and of the impartation of the Holy Spirit ; and the Lord's Supper as a symbol of his atoning death, a seal of its efficacy, and a means whereby He confirms and strengthens the spiritual union and communion of believers with himself.

XII. We believe in the ultimate prevalence of the kingdom of Christ over all the earth ; in the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ ; in the resurrection of the dead ; and in a final judgment, the issues of which are everlasting punishment and everlasting life.

FORM OF ADMISSION.

[Those who are to make confession of faith will stand before the table and the Minister will say:]

What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people.—Ps. cxvi: 12-14.

Whosoever, therefore, shall confess Me before men, him will I confess also before My Father, which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before My Father, which is in heaven.—Matt. x: 32, 33.

For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.—Rom x: 10.

Dearly beloved, called of God to be His children through Jesus Christ our Lord, you are here that, in the presence of God and His people, you may enter into the fellowship and communion of His Church. You do truly repent of your sins; you heartily receive Jesus Christ as your crucified Saviour and risen Lord; you consecrate yourselves unto God and your life to His service; you accept His Word as your law, and His Spirit as your Comforter and Guide; and, trusting in His grace to confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, you promise to do God's holy will, and to walk with this church in the truth and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Accepting, according to the measure of your understanding of it, the system of Christian truth held by the churches of our faith and order, and by this church into whose fellowship you now enter; you join with ancient saints, with the church throughout the world, and with us, your fellow-believers, in humbly and heartily confessing your faith in the gospel, saying:

[The members of the church rising and joining.]

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; the third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven; and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the dead; and the life everlasting. Amen.

[The members of the church will be seated. Then should baptism be administered to those who have not been baptized. Then should those also rise who would unite with the Church by letter. To them the minister should say:]

Confessing the Lord whom we unitedly worship, you do now renew your self-consecration, and join with us cordially in this, our Christian faith and covenant.

[The members of the Church present should rise.]

We welcome you into our fellowship. We promise to watch over you with Christian love. God grant that, loving and being loved, serving and being served, blessing and being blessed, we may be prepared, while we dwell together on earth, for the perfect communion of the saints in heaven.

[Then shall one of the following benedictions be given.]

Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.—Heb. 13: 20, 21.

Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy.

To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. Jude 24, 25.

STANDING RULES.

I. MEMBERSHIP.

I. Persons wishing to unite with this church on confession may be examined by the Standing Committee. If approved, the candidates, except in cases where this is impracticable, shall be propounded from the pulpit at least one week before the Communion Sabbath; and when the church shall have voted to receive them, they may be admitted by publicly assenting to our confession and entering into covenant.

II. Members of other Christian churches will be received to membership by vote of the church on presenting letters of dismission and recommendation, and by entering into covenant with us.

III. Members of this church making a change of residence, or place of worship, ought to request letters of dismission and recommendation to some other Christian church. If they neglect to do so for one year, they shall be reminded by the clerk, or some other officer of the church, of the obligation imposed by this rule. If, after five years of absence, they shall not have removed their church relation, and no satisfactory reason appears, they may be separated from the church on the ground of such neglect.

II. OFFICERS.

There shall be the following officers:

1. A Pastor,—who shall have control of the pulpit and the exercises of public and social worship, shall preach the Word, administer the sacraments, preside in the meetings of the church, and take a spiritual oversight of the flock.

II. Four or more deacons,—who shall provide for and aid the Pastor in the administration of the Lord's Supper, take the oversight of poor members needing relief, assist the Pastor in the spiritual care of the congregation, and in his absence preside at business meetings of the church in the order of seniority.

III. A Clerk,—who shall make a faithful record of all the business transactions of the church; keep a register of the church members, with the date and manner of their reception and removal; the names of all persons baptized, whether infants or adults; issue letters of dismissal when voted by the church; and, at the annual meeting, submit a written statement of the whole number of members, resident and non-resident, the admissions (separately specifying the number by profession and letter), deaths and removals (specifying the number by death, dismissal and discipline) during the year past, and also the names of such members as, having been absent for more than a year, and having been reminded of our rules, have neglected to take letters of dismissal. The Clerk shall record all the reports submitted at the annual meeting, and call special business meetings of the church when directed so to do by the pastor, or a majority of the Standing Committee, or on a request in writing signed by ten members of the church.

IV. A Standing Committee,—consisting of the pastor and deacons, with such other members as may be annually chosen, to consult and advise in regard to church work; examine candidates for membership, and recommend those whom they approve to the church; inquire into all cases of scandal or public offense by members of the church which may come to their knowledge by complaint or otherwise, and seek, by all means in their power, to promote the purity, growth and efficiency of the church. In especially authorizing a Standing Committee to perform these duties, it is not intended to absolve the other members from their obligations to work for Christ, or to advise, watch over, and, if need be, admonish each other.

V. A Treasurer,—who shall see that the public collections, authorized by the church for benevolent objects, are taken up at the right time. He shall receive and properly forward the sums so collected, and shall also receive and apply the collections taken at the Communion seasons, and submit a written statement, at the annual meeting, of the amount collected and the disposition made of it.

VI. A Superintendent of the Sabbath school,—who shall have a general oversight of the school; secure proper teachers for the classes, and, with the teachers, labor for the increase and profitableness of the school, and appoint such other officers as he may deem necessary to record the number of classes, the attendance of teachers and pupils, the collections in money taken; and submit a written report at the annual meeting of the condition and needs of the school.

III. MEETINGS.

I. Meetings for public worship shall be held on the Sabbath, the number and order of these services to be arranged as the church may direct.

II. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall usually be administered on the first Sabbath of January, March, May, July, September, and November. The preparatory service shall be held on the Friday preceding, unless otherwise ordered.

III. The weekly church, prayer, and conference meeting shall be on Tuesday evening of each week. At this meeting, any ordinary business may be transacted.

IV. There shall be an annual business meeting of the church on the first Tuesday evening in January, which shall take the place of the church prayer-meeting on that evening.

V. The order of business at this annual meeting shall be :

1. Prayer.
2. Report of Deacons.
3. Report of Treasurer.
4. Report of Clerk.
5. Report of Standing Committee.
6. Report of Superintendent of Sabbath School.
7. Election of Treasurer.*
8. Election of Clerk.*
9. Election of Standing Committee.
10. Election of Superintendent of Sabbath school.*
11. Determining the objects for which collections shall be taken during the ensuing year.
12. Any other business.

VI. Special business meetings may be called, as specified in the duties of the clerk ; but public notice of all such meetings shall be read by the pastor or clerk on a preceding Sabbath.

VII. All meetings of the Standing Committee for the examination of candidates, shall be announced from the pulpit on a preceding Sabbath. Any member of the church who desires may be present.

IV. COLLECTIONS.

I. A collection shall be taken, at each communion season, to be expended, by the treasurer, under the direction of the pastor and deacons.

II. Other collections in the church shall be taken for such objects as by vote of the church at its annual meeting shall be adopted for the year ensuing. Special collections may be taken at the discretion of the pastor and deacons for any object of Christian benevolence.

V. DISCIPLINE.

1. Church discipline, like church polity, is left in the New Testament to the guidance of general principles rather than specific precepts. No formal process of church discipline is anywhere laid down in the New Testament; that is left, rather, to the judgment and experience of individual churches. The rule of proceeding, laid down in Matthew 18, is obligatory as a rule only in cases of personal offense. A breach of church covenant is not a personal wrong to any particular member of the church, or to the members of the church as individuals, in any such sense as would bring it within the scope of the instructions of Christ for the healing of personal offenses. But, while the rule given in Matthew 18 is not in such cases obligatory as a rule, it is, nevertheless, desirable that the principle and the spirit of the instructions there given should be applied also to offenses of a public nature when this is practicable.

II. The form of exclusion may not be in all cases the same. In some, it may be excommunication; in others, a suspension from church privileges; and in others, simple withdrawal of watch and care, according to 2 Thess. 3: 6, 14, 15, adapting the form of the vote to the circumstances of the case.

III. In all cases of public offense and scandal, as when members are living so as to bring reproach on the Christian name, it shall be the duty of the Standing Committee, when possible, by private conference to reclaim the offender; but if they fail of this, they shall, if in their opinion the purity of the church and the honor of Christ require it, report the facts to the church with the measures which in their judgment should be adopted.

IV. Should any member be brought before the church, by the Standing Committee or any person, for an alleged offense, he shall previously and seasonably be furnished with a written statement of the charges preferred against him, and of the time and place of hearing.

V. No vote of suspension, censure or withdrawal of fellowship shall be valid except it be approved by two thirds of the members present at a stated or properly called meeting.

VI. In all cases of discipline it is to be understood that the spiritual reformation of the offender is the end in view, and so, on evidence of repentance, and a satisfactory confession, such person shall be restored to good standing by vote of the church.

VI. VOTING.

All members of this church in good standing are entitled to an equal right in voting upon any measure that may come before the church.

VII. AMENDMENTS.

The foregoing rules may be altered or amended at any annual meeting of the church by a majority of the members present.
